It's Black-and-White For a Reason... One of our values is to be inwardly frugal so we can be outwardly generous. That's why this program is black-and-white and printed on plain paper. Printing them this way cuts our costs way down. So this program may not be fancy, but it gets the job done. This is one of the things we do that enables us to give away 23% of our budget to the poor and needy in our community and beyond.

The Quest for the Radical Middle

August 6, 2017

Week 10 of series: Acts 29

We want people to encounter God on Sundays and not just "go to church." That is why today's 75-minute service will include an in-depth Bible teaching, communion, worship (feel free to stand or sit as we sing), and an opportunity to receive 1-on-1 prayer.

Digging Deeper Questions

In our fast-paced culture, it's easy to be impacted by the sermon you hear at church on Sunday... only to forget about it by Monday. To make this message "stick" we created these Digging Deeper Questions so you can process and apply what you heard at church. Take some time this week to go through these questions by yourself, in your small group, with a friend, your family, or your roommate.

1. Icebreaker: How much do you know about your family tree (e.g., where your parents were born, what countries your grandparents originate from, or any interesting facts about any of your ancestors)? Have fun with this question!
2. Is there anything you heard in this week's sermon or experienced in this week's service that was an "a ha" moment, something significant for you?
3. In Sunday's sermon, Dan shared how he was born and raised Catholic and believed that Catholicism was the only valid expression of the Christian faith. He even thought his Lutheran neighbors and Methodist soccer team member followed Jesus in an inferior way. Did you grow up in a church-going home? If yes, did you share similar thoughts about those who attended a different denomination than yours?
4. A quotable quote shared in Sunday's sermon was this: "If you have the Spirit without the Word, you blow up. If you have the Word without the Spirit, you dry up. If you have both the Word and the Spirit, you grow up." What are your thoughts on this perspective?
5. In Streams of Living Water, Richard Foster highlights six expressions of the Christian faith:
  - Contemplative (Prayer-Filled)
  - Holiness (Virtuous)
  - Charismatic/Pentecostal (Spirit-Empowered)
  - Social Justice (Compassionate)
  - Evangelical (Word-Centered)
  - Incarnational (Sacramental)Go around the room and give an example of at least one person or organization that "specializes" in each of the six streams.
6. In Forgotten God, Francis Chan (who is part of the Evangelical stream of our faith) writes: "You might think that calling the Holy Spirit the "forgotten God" is a bit extreme. Maybe you agree that the church has focused too much attention elsewhere but feel it is an exaggeration to say we have forgotten about the Holy Spirit. I don't think so. From my perspective, the Holy Spirit is tragically neglected and, for all practical purposes, forgotten. While no evangelical would deny His existence, I'm willing to bet there are millions of churchgoers across America who cannot confidently say they have experienced His presence or action in their lives over the past year. And many of them do not believe they can." What are your thoughts on Chan's perspective? If you are honest, to what degree has the Holy Spirit been the "forgotten God" on your spiritual journey?
7. The Vineyard movement attempts to bring together the best of both the Evangelical and Pentecostal/Charismatic streams of Christianity while staying away from the extremes of both. Which of the two streams are you most comfortable "swimming in"? What is an Action Step you can take to "stick your big toe in the water" of the other stream?

Key Passage:

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching . . . Everyone was filled with awe, and many wonders and signs were being performed through the apostles. - Acts 2:42,43 (CSB)
