It's Black-and-White For a Reason... One of our values is to be inwardly frugal so we can be outwardly generous. That's why this program is black-and-white and printed on plain paper. Printing them this way cuts our costs way down. So this program may not be fancy, but it gets the job done. This is one of the things we do that enables us to give away 23% of our budget to the poor and needy in our community and beyond.

Honey I Shrank the Gospel

Week 5 of Series: On Your "Mark"

October 8, 2017

We want people to encounter God on Sundays and not just "go to church." That is why today's 75-minute service will include an in-depth Bible teaching, communion, worship (feel free to stand or sit as we sing), and an opportunity to receive 1-on-1 prayer.

Honey I Shrunk the Gospel

(Dan Kopp - lead pastor of The Eastside Vineyard Church)

Notes:

Digging Deeper Questions

In our fast-paced culture, it's easy to be impacted by the sermon you hear at church on Sunday... only to forget about it by Monday. To make this message "stick" we created these Digging Deeper Questions so you can process and apply what you heard at church. Take some time this week to go through these questions by yourself, in your small group, with a friend, your family, or your roommate.

1. Icebreaker: Today's sermon title was inspired by the kid's movie Honey, I Shrunk the Kids! starring Rick Moranis. What are some of your all-time favorite children's movies? Have fun with this question!

2. Is there anything you heard in this week's sermon or experienced in this week's service that was an "a ha" moment, something significant for you?

3. When you think of "the gospel" do you tend to think all that really matters is believing in Jesus and accepting His death on the cross as payment for your sins...while doing something like serving the poor is nothing more than "extra credit"? Why or why not?

4. Read Mark 1:14-15. That is the gospel – the good news -- according to Jesus: "Now is the time. The Kingdom of God is near." It's all about the Kingdom of God breaking into our world. Barry Long, senior pastor of Vineyard Christian Church in Florence, Kentucky, defines the "Kingdom of God" as this: The Kingdom of God is God's rule breaking into this world in Jesus and fleshed out by the church in the power of the Holy Spirit. Announcements of the Kingdom of God include the healing of our broken relationship with God, healing of poverty, healing of racism, healing of sexism, healing from demons, the healing of flawed theology about God, healing of sexuality, healing of bodies, healing of relationships, healing of injustice, healing of lack of self worth, and the healing of our environment. The Kingdom of God will be consummated when Christ returns creating a new heaven and new earth. And everything will be put to rights. What parts of this definition do you resonate with the most? Explain.

5. Read Ephesians 2:10. Keeping your answers to the previous question in mind, if money was not an issue and you knew you wouldn't fail, what would you want to do for God? In other words, what aspect(s) of the Kingdom of God would you want to come more fully on Earth? [Note: really think about this before you answer. Dream big dreams!!]

6. Read Mark 1:16-18. Every journey begins with a first step. What are some baby steps you could take this week to take your answers from the previous question and begin to turn them into reality? Be specific!

7. In Chasing Daylight, Erwin McManus writes, "It begins by realizing that God has already told us so much about His will for us that we could spend the rest of our lives simply fulfilling what is already revealed. Do what you know you should do, and you will know what to do. It is fair to say that God informs us on a need-to-know basis. The Scriptures give us what we all need to know, and Jesus promises us that His Spirit will lead us if we will follow Him." What are your thoughts on McManus' perspective? What are some commands from God in the Scriptures that you could begin doing today, even if they may not be your lifelong calling?

Key Passage:

After John was arrested, Jesus went to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God: "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!" - Mark 1:14-15 (CSB)
